WHAT DO AMERICAN GENERAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY (AGL) AND THE UNITED STATES LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY IN THE CITY OF NEW YORK (US Life) DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:
- Social Security number and Medical Information
- Income and Credit History
- Payment History and Employment Information

All financial companies need to share customers' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers' personal information; the reasons AGL & US Life choose to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

Who we are

Who is providing this notice?
American General Life Insurance Company and The United States Life Insurance Company in the City of New York

What we do

How do AGL & US Life protect my personal information?
To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings. We restrict access to employees, representatives, agents, or selected third parties who have been trained to handle nonpublic personal information.

How do AGL & US Life collect my personal information?
We collect your personal information, for example, when you:
- apply for insurance or pay insurance premiums
- file an insurance claim or give us your income information
- provide employment information
- We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?
Federal law gives you the right to limit only:
- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more on your rights under state law.

Definitions

Affiliates
Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.
- Our affiliates include the member companies of American International Group, Inc.

Nonaffiliates
Companies not related by common ownership or control.
- AGL and US Life do not share with nonaffiliates so they can market to you.

Joint marketing
A formal agreement between nonaffiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you.
- Our joint marketing partners include companies with which we jointly offer insurance products, such as a bank.

Other important information

For Vermont Residents only. We will not disclose information about your creditworthiness to our affiliates and will not disclose your personal information, financial information, credit report, or health information to nonaffiliated third parties to market to you, other than as permitted by Vermont law, unless you authorize us to make those disclosures. Additional information concerning our privacy policies can be found using the contact information above for Questions.

For California Residents only. We will not share information we collect about you with nonaffiliated third parties, except as permitted by California law, such as to process your transactions or to maintain your account.
