Invesco New Economy Index® in Power Select Index Annuities

Offer clients an innovative way to gain exposure to technology and cryptocurrency

The Invesco New Economy Index features technology-focused companies along with a modest Bitcoin component—all inside a single index interest account. The index blends exposure to the Invesco QQQ ETF and the Invesco Galaxy Bitcoin ETF, adjusting daily to help manage volatility and pursue more consistent long-term growth.

Index highlights

Leading equity component	Measured Bitcoin exposure	Next Gen asset allocation

Allocations are adjusted dynamically to pursue stronger, more stable returns

Historical back-tested asset allocation through December 31, 2025

The Index's allocations to QQQ, Bitcoin and cash vary over time based on market conditions. As a result, index performance will differ from the performance of QQQ alone.

Source: Invesco Indexing. 10/1/10 to 12/31/25. The Invesco New Economy Index was launched on 9/30/25. All data prior to a launch date is back-tested (i.e., calculations of how the index might have performed over that time period had the index existed). Back-tested performance is subject to inherent limitations because it reflects retroactive application of an index methodology and selection of index constituents with the benefit of hindsight. Past performance, actual or back-tested, is no guarantee of future performance. Annualized Volatility is the standard deviation of monthly returns. Data above is hypothetical. An investment cannot be made in an index.

Important risk information

There is no assurance that the index discussed in this material will achieve its investment objectives.

There is no guarantee the stated volatility target will be achieved.

Diversification/Asset allocation cannot eliminate the risk of fluctuating prices and uncertain returns and does not assure a profit or protect against loss.

Allocating to cash or cash equivalents may negatively affect performance.

Investments focused in a particular sector, such as technology, are subject to greater risk, and are more greatly impacted by market volatility, than more diversified investments.

In general, equity values fluctuate, sometimes widely, in response to activities specific to the company as well as general market, economic and political conditions.

Bitcoin is a digital currency (also called cryptocurrency) that is not backed by any country's central bank or government. Bitcoins can be traded for goods or services with vendors who accept bitcoins as payment.

BTCO is not an investment company within the meaning of the Investment Company Act of 1940 and is not subject to regulation thereunder.

Bitcoins and other cryptocurrencies are considered a highly speculative investment due to their lack of guaranteed value and limited track record. Because of their digital nature, they pose risks from hackers, malware, fraud, and operational glitches. Bitcoins and other cryptocurrencies aren't legal tender and are operated by a decentralized authority, unlike government-issued currencies. Cryptocurrency exchanges and cryptocurrency accounts aren't backed or insured by any type of federal or government program or bank.

The price of a digital currency could drop precipitously (including to zero) for a variety of reasons, including, but not limited to, regulatory changes, a crisis of confidence, flaw or operational issue in a digital currency network, or a change in user preference to competing cryptocurrencies. Currently, there is relatively limited use of cryptocurrency in the retail and commercial marketplace, which contributes to price volatility.

Important information about Invesco Indexing LLC

Invesco Indexing LLC is an independent index provider owned by global asset management firm Invesco Ltd. Invesco Indexing develops and administers a wide array of equity, fixed income, and multi-asset indices. These indices provide market exposures for both local and global markets. Invesco Indexing's full range of indices are constructed by experienced investment professionals and are designed to help clients meet specific financial objectives.

The information provided is for informational purposes only and should not be construed as an offer to buy or sell any financial instruments, or a recommendation for any security or fund interest. Invesco Indexing LLC is not an investment adviser or fiduciary and makes no representation regarding the advisability of investing in any security or strategy. There can be no assurance that an investment strategy based on the Invesco Indexes will be successful.

Invesco Indexing LLC is an indirect, wholly owned subsidiary of Invesco Ltd. The group is legally, technologically and physically separate from other business units of Invesco, including the various global investment centers.

This does not constitute a recommendation of any investment strategy or product for a particular investor. Investors should consult a financial professional before making any investment decisions.

Exposure to an asset class or trading strategy represented by an index is only available through investable instruments (if any) based on that index. Invesco Indexing LLC does not issue, sponsor, endorse, market, offer, review or otherwise express any opinion regarding any fund, derivative or other security, financial product or trading strategy that is based on, linked to or seeks to track the performance of any Invesco Indexing LLC index.

Important information about index annuities

Index annuities are not a direct investment in the stock market. They are long-term insurance products with guarantees backed by the claims-paying ability of the issuing insurance company. They provide the potential for interest to be credited based in part on the performance of the specified index, without the risk of loss of premium due to market downturns or fluctuations. Index annuities may not be appropriate for all individuals.

Annuities are long-term insurance products designed for retirement. Early withdrawals may be subject to withdrawal charges. Partial withdrawals reduce the contract value and may reduce certain benefits under the contract, such as the death benefit and the amount available upon full surrender. Withdrawals of taxable amounts are subject to ordinary income tax and, if taken prior to age 59½, an additional 10% federal tax may apply.

This material is general in nature, was developed for educational use only, and is not intended to provide financial, legal, fiduciary, accounting or tax advice, nor is it intended to make any recommendations. Applicable laws and regulations are complex and subject to change. For legal, accounting or tax advice, clients should consult the appropriate professional.

All contract and benefit guarantees including any fixed account crediting rates or annuity rates are backed by the claims-paying ability of the issuing insurance company. They are not obligations of or backed by the distributor, insurance agency or any affiliates of those entities and none makes any representations or guarantees regarding the claims-paying ability of the issuing insurance company.

The Power Series of Index Annuities are issued by American General Life Insurance Company (AGL), Houston, Texas. Contract Numbers: AG-800 (12/12), AG-801 (12/12), AG-801 (2/25) and ICC25-AG-801 (2/25). AGL is a member company of Corebridge Financial, Inc. The underwriting risks, financial and contractual obligations and support functions associated with the annuities issued by AGL are its responsibility. Guarantees are backed by the claims-paying ability of the issuing insurance company. AGL does not solicit, issue or deliver policies or contracts in the state of New York. Annuities and riders may vary by state and are not available in all states. This material is not intended for use in the state of Idaho or New York.
